REPORT OF THE COUNCIL FOR 1897.

THIS, the first Annual Report of the Fund, would be incomplete without some account of its origin. The simplest and clearest statement is that made by His Royal Highness the President in his letter to the public of February 5, 1897, which was as follows:—

“MARLBOROUGH HOUSE,
“PALL MALL, S.W.

“Having ascertained from the Queen that she has no wish to express a preference for any one of the many proposals loyally suggested for commemorating, nationally or locally, the sixtieth year of her reign, I feel at liberty to bring to the notice of the inhabitants of the metropolis a project lying very near my heart, its object being to attach the sentiment of gratitude for the blessings which the country has enjoyed during the last sixty years to a scheme of permanent beneficence.

“The finances of the hospitals of London have long been a source of anxiety and solicitude. An analysis furnished me of the audited statements of account for the year 1895 of 122 metropolitan hospitals and convalescent homes shows a deficiency of £70,000 in the ordinary receipts as compared with the ordinary expenditure, while, if we limit the figures to institutions which failed to meet their outgoings, the deficiency is increased to £102,500.

“In considering how this may be remedied, I have been struck by the statement, the truth of which is placed beyond doubt, that the contributors to the funds of our hospitals number less than one in a hundred of the population. It appears to me that in this fact we may find at once an explanation of present indigence and the best hope of its relief. It is necessary to enlarge the area from which annual subscriptions are gathered. If we divide the population of the metropolitan district into two portions, and agree that one moiety is unable to contribute anything, there still remain three millions of persons representing, say, 500,000 households. Of these, 450,000 households, at least, so far as can be ascertained, do not contribute anything towards the support of hospitals. If we again assume that one-half are unwilling or unable to acknowledge either privilege or duty in this matter, an average annual subscription of no more than 10s. each from the remainder will suffice. The efforts of individual institutions, competing with one another, have not availed to enlist a large body of subscribers. I do not believe that this arises from any real indifference, but partly from the difficulty of choosing an object of interest among so many, partly from the lack of any definite opportunity for giving annual subscriptions to the cause as a whole, and partly from the feeling that small sums are not worth contributing. I am, however, confident that a combined appeal on behalf of the hospitals of London, setting forth their work in its magnitude and importance, will prove irresistible.

“In that belief I have asked the co-operation of the representative committee whose names are appended, and I propose, with their assistance, to invite subscriptions of 1s. per annum and upwards from all classes for ‘The Prince of Wales’s Hospital Fund for London, to commemorate the Sixtieth Anniversary of the Queen’s Reign.’ It will be noticed that the members of the committee are not identified as active managers with any particular hospital, neither shall we trench upon the ground occupied by the Hospital Sunday and Saturday Funds. Our attention will be concentrated upon an endeavour to secure from £100,000 to £150,000 in annual subscriptions from those who have not hitherto regularly contributed.

“To this end we propose to approach, among others, the ground landlords, the railway and other companies, all large employers of labour, the private and joint stock banks and companies, various trade associations, and, above all, the householders in the town and suburbs whose names are not found in the hospitals' lists.

“I am glad to say the promises of assistance received so far are most encouraging. Lord Rothschild has consented to be the Treasurer of the Fund, and the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England have placed office accommodation at our service, both in the City and at their West-end Branch. The Lord Mayor has promised his cordial support.

“I am aware that the task of distributing the funds when collected will not be without its difficulties. It may be desirable in the future to seek the assistance of representatives chosen by the hospitals, but for the first year we shall rely upon the co-operation of the Distribution Committee of the Hospital Sunday Fund.

“Finally, I venture to offer a word in general commendation of the scheme. Public opinion has shown itself upon more than one occasion, and I think wisely, in favour of the maintenance of the voluntary system for support of our hospitals, combined with an adequate system of representation of the body of subscribers in their control and management. It is obvious, however, that if these institutions are to be saved from State or parochial aid, their financial condition must be secured. We must recall the fact that, apart from the purely philanthropic work carried on in relief of our sick poor, we look to the voluntary hospitals for the means of medical education and the advancement of medical science. Our hope is that, by the aid of this Commemoration Fund, we may be enabled to secure for these necessary institutions sufficient and permanent support.

“Subscriptions of 1s. and upwards may be sent to the Treasurer, Lord Rothschild, New Court, E.C., or to the honorary secretaries, the Prince of Wales's Hospital Fund for London, the Bank of England, London, E.C. It is hoped that arrangements may be possible in the near future by which the greatest facilities will be given to every Londoner to pay his subscriptions with the minimum of trouble to himself and the maximum of security for the Fund.”

The Council formed to assist His Royal Highness in carrying out the scheme was originally composed of those who were invited to Marlborough House on January 21, 1897, with the addition, from time to time, of such persons as seemed qualified to make the Council still more representative in its nature. This Council in its turn appointed an Executive Committee to make arrangements requisite to the success of the scheme. Other committees were appointed for various sections of the work, and a strictly limited number of appeals were issued.

It was essential to the success of the Fund that no encroachment should be made on the ground covered by the Hospital Sunday and Saturday Funds. Any danger of this kind was avoided by agreement, leaving the Sunday Fund to seek the advocacy of the pulpit, and the Saturday Fund the collections made in workshops, unless they were clearly stated to be sent to the Prince's Fund in honour of Her Majesty's Jubilee.

A great impetus was given when His Royal Highness the President announced that his appeal had the sanction of the Queen.

The Council desire to express their indebtedness to the Metropolitan Press, and especially to those newspapers which opened subscription lists in their columns, or which co-operated in other ways to interest Londoners in the Fund, and so gave the movement an excellent start.

It would be invidious to select any subscription for special mention, but a list of contributors will be found in Appendix 4. It may here suffice to say that the individual donations run from 6*d.* to £12,500, and the subscriptions from 1*s.* to £1,000 a year each.

Two Conferences of representatives of the clergy and ministers of all religious bodies assembled at London House at the invitation of the Bishop of London, who presided on both occasions. It was unanimously resolved at the first Conference, held in February 1897—

“That the members believe that the ministers of the various denominations will be able and willing to co-operate with the Executive Committee of the Prince of Wales’s Hospital Fund on the basis of the understanding already referred to.”

In accordance with a later recommendation of these Conferences, the Subscription Books and Stamp Albums issued by the Fund have been brought before the attention of the clergy and ministers throughout London, with a request that they will consider the possibility of finding some one connected with each congregation who will bring before the people this method of making small subscriptions. The Council venture to hope that they will have the cordial co-operation of the leaders in spiritual work throughout London in their endeavour to interest the masses of the people to become small subscribers to the hospitals through the Fund.

Soon after the Fund was established district committees were organised in Paddington by Mr. John Aird, M.P., and in Marylebone by Sir Horace Farquhar, Bart., M.P., being the members for the respective divisions in question. So far, these are the only Metropolitan districts which have thus organised branches; but a general desire has been expressed that the district committees already appointed should be kept together for the purpose of getting in the income they have been promised for the Prince’s Fund, and that they may be called together as occasion may require. It is hoped that the success so far achieved may encourage other districts to establish committees with the same object.

The sale of the Jubilee Procession Programme, the publication of which was made possible by the generous co-operation of the Daily Graphic, realised upwards of £2,000; the Hospital Stamps, which were engraved by Messrs. De la Rue & Co. free of cost, have already produced a considerable sum, and it is hoped that by issuing different stamps each year numerous contributions will be secured for the Fund.

A memorial has been presented to His Royal Highness the President, from those in favour of the establishment of a Central Hospital Board for London, urging its formation. The Council, however, with His Royal Highness’s approval, resolved:—

“That this Council hereby approves and adopts the resolution passed by the Executive Committee on November 9, 1897, that, in view of the controversial character of the proposition of the Charity

Organisation Society to establish a Central Hospital Board for London, it is inexpedient that the Prince of Wales's Hospital Fund for London be associated with the movement."

A special committee was appointed under the chairmanship of Lord Lister to consider and report as to which of the leading hospitals in the Metropolis should receive assistance from the Fund during 1897; and the proportions in which the money should be granted. The substance of the report of this special committee will be found in Appendix 1.

Careful and complete inquiries were made into the particular and local needs of those hospitals in which there was a permanent occupancy of 100 or more beds on an average of three years. These institutions include, though not exclusively, all the Metropolitan Hospitals which have Medical Schools attached to them; and it was decided to devote out of the income of the Fund £22,050 to annual grants to such of them as specially needed help for the purposes of opening closed wards, and for other pressing needs. Those hospitals which receive such annual grants are 13 in number. (See Appendix 2.)

Besides thus employing the income of the Fund, the Council resolved that a sum of about £34,000 received from the sale of the Hospital Stamps should be given this year to the hospitals generally in the form of special donations in honour of the Diamond Jubilee of Her Majesty the Queen, and in accordance with the Hospital Sunday Fund awards. The institutions receiving special donations on this basis included twenty-eight General Hospitals, five Chest Hospitals, fourteen Children's Hospitals, six Lying-in Hospitals, six Women's Hospitals, and twenty-five other special hospitals (see Appendix 2). It may be anticipated that in all these hospitals the considerable sums they thus receive will assist them in carrying out greater efficiency and in increasing their usefulness; while, further, no less than about 180 beds in wards now closed to the poor will henceforth be available for them. The Council are agreed that it is extremely desirable that the wants and merits of all the Metropolitan hospitals should be investigated, and in future years it is their intention to see that this shall be done. It was not possible to do it completely, however, in the first year of the Fund's working, and that is why, having regard to the terms of the Prince of Wales's original letter to the public, the Hospital Sunday Fund basis was resorted to in determining the amounts of the special donations.

The Council believe that the way in which the moneys have been distributed has met with general approval, and they venture to hope that it will lead the public to show increasing confidence in the Fund during 1898, so that not only may the assistance already given to the leading hospitals be continued, but that similar aid may be extended to every hospital throughout the Metropolis which is found on investigation to be worthy of a grant.

The total sum paid into the credit of the Fund during the eleven months ended December 31, 1897, has been £227,551. 12s. 5d. Of this amount there has been given in known annual subscriptions, chiefly in the form of bankers' orders, £21,443. 1s. 5d.

There is reason to expect that many of the donors of 1897 will renew their donations each year.

After providing the sum of £56,826. 5s., which has been distributed amongst the hospitals during 1897, there remained a sum of £167,020. 19s. 8d. for investment. The most strenuous endeavours have been made to reduce the expenses to the lowest possible sum. The total expenditure under all heads, including salaries, office and other expenses, advertisements, &c., amounts to £3,704. 7s. 9d. It follows that the whole of the £227,551. 12s. 5d., being the total sum received by the Fund, has been raised at a cost of £1. 12s. 6d. per cent.

From first to last His Royal Highness the President has been untiring in his interest in the work of the Fund. He continues to devote himself to every detail, and has freely given his time to the development of a movement which he feels to be of very real importance to the welfare of those who live in the Metropolis of the Empire.

Signed on behalf of the Council,

SAVILE CROSSLEY,

Honorary Secretary.

APPENDIX 1.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON DISTRIBUTION.

The Committee unanimously present the following Report. We have proceeded on the supposition that in all probability grants will be made for this year only from the Prince of Wales's Fund to all hospitals which receive awards from the Hospital Sunday Fund, and in approximately the same amounts.

Assuming such contributions to be made, they may be regarded as special grants for this year, leaving the present income of the Prince's Fund to be disposed of in the manner which may seem best calculated to benefit the hospitals of the Metropolis.

In accordance with views expressed and adopted in the Executive Committee, it has appeared to us that the income money of the Fund cannot be better spent than in aiding, in proportion to their needs and usefulness, the most important of the hospitals. A fair indication of those institutions which may be regarded in this light is the permanent occupancy of 100 or more beds. This test will include, though not exclusively, all the hospitals having medical schools. And it may be remarked that the existence of a school in connection with a hospital gives it a strong claim to support: not only because a medical school in itself confers immense benefits on the community, but also because the public criticism to which the officers of such a hospital are perpetually subjected, ensures that the treatment of the patients is conducted in accordance with the best existing knowledge.

The hospitals in the Metropolis having 100 or more beds permanently occupied on the average of the three years, 1894 to 1896, are 17 in number, and are as follows:—

| | | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------------------------------------------------|-------|
| Charing Cross Hospital | (146) | National Hospital for the Paralysed, &c. | (165) |
| Children's Hospital, Great Ormond Street | (146) | Royal Free Hospital | (119) |
| City of London Hospital for Diseases of the Chest | (106) | St. Bartholomew's Hospital | |
| Guy's Hospital | (423) | St. George's Hospital | (299) |
| Hospital for Consumption, Brompton | (246) | St. Mary's Hospital | (247) |
| King's College Hospital | (180) | St. Thomas's Hospital | (375) |
| The London Hospital | (634) | Seamen's Hospital | (203) |
| Middlesex Hospital | (275) | University College Hospital | (185) |
| | | Westminster Hospital | (165) |

The average numbers of beds occupied daily per annum on the average of the three years, 1894 to 1896, have been added in parentheses.

With the view of ascertaining the relative needs of these institutions, the Committee addressed a letter to the Chairman of each of them, except St. Bartholomew's, requesting information under the heads given in the table in Appendix B.* Among these heads we included that of Vacant Beds. To open wards closed for want of funds is certainly a most important object: and on the understanding that we are dealing with the income of the fund, and that a sum given to any hospital this year for the purpose under consideration will probably be continued in future years, and so may be regarded as a grant of so much per annum, we have recommended that considerable sums should be so employed. It may seem superfluous to point out that it would be mere mockery to invite any institution to undertake the opening of a closed ward by making a grant to it this year, unless there were reasonable prospect that a similar provision could be made in the future.

Of course it will always be in the power of the Council to modify the amounts in future years either by way of increase or diminution, in accordance with the varying needs of the various hospitals. But the allocation of any portions of the Fund to the extremely important object of opening closed wards, must, in our opinion, be done on the understanding that it will be on a more or less permanent footing.

Supposing our recommendations in this respect to be acted on, the result would be the immediate and permanent occupying, in wards now closed, of 169 beds in General Hospitals and 16 in Children's Hospitals, making a total of 185 beds. This would in itself constitute an immense boon to the suffering poor of London.

Besides making this enquiry by letter we have endeavoured to ascertain the financial condition of the various hospitals by taking out the value of the capital funds of each institution based on the actual income from General Investments, which we have capitalised at 3 per cent., and the income derived from rentals of house property, &c., which we have capitalised at 5 per cent. The figures for the years 1886 and 1896 (given in Appendix D*), have been checked and certified by Messrs. Craggs, Turketine & Co., Chartered Accountants. St. Bartholomew's Hospital is not included in the Certificate because it is well endowed, the whole of its revenue being derived from invested property.

* The Appendices to the Report contain details which the Council do not consider themselves at liberty to publish.

* * * * *

We have further to point out in this connection that the condition of the fabric of some of the older hospitals imperatively demands a capital expenditure upon the buildings and appliances, while a further sum ought to be expended in renewing the furniture and internal fittings, so as to bring the hospitals up to modern requirements and modern efficiency. In the opinion of the Committee there should be a mean fixed point arrived at by each Hospital Committee, which should represent the average amount in pounds sterling at which the Reserve Fund of each hospital should stand, in order to secure it from any temporary loss or decreasing income due to special causes. It has been suggested, and is held by those who have given a great deal of time to the consideration of the question, that any Voluntary Hospital which has reserves amounting to a sum equal to five years' gross annual expenditure, has attained a position of financial soundness which should enable its governing body to devote any available portion of the remaining capital, if and when necessary, to defray the expenditure upon new buildings, or the renewal of old buildings, drainage, sanitary improvements, refurnishing, and so forth. In the statement given below (Appendix D*), we have added a column showing in the case of each hospital the total of five years' gross annual expenditure based upon the Hospital Sunday Fund return of the average gross expenditure during the three years ending with 1896.

The Committee are anxious that each of the great hospitals shall be modernised and improved, when necessary, by the expenditure of money out of capital reserve funds upon the renovation of old buildings, the improvement of their sanitary condition, and the renewal of furniture and fittings throughout these establishments.

It is felt that a definite increase in the income of a hospital through the instrumentality of the Prince of Wales's Fund must encourage the Committee of each institution to take in hand the work of renovation and improvement, and to defray the cost of it out of the reserve fund. By this system the financial condition of each of the principal hospitals would be strengthened in accordance with the wishes expressed in His Royal Highness's letter dated February 5, 1897.

* * * * *

The sums which we have recommended to be specially allocated to the principal hospitals (Appendix A*) amount in all to £22,050. This, added to what is likely to be given to all hospitals on the basis of the Hospital Sunday Fund (about £35,000), would give about £57,000 distributed this year.
