REPORT OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL

For the Year ending 31st December, 1903.

THE sums received during 1903 were, in addition to interest from investments: Donations, £6,882. 13s. 9d.; Annual Subscriptions, £32,834. 1s. 3d.; from the League of Mercy, £10,000; and from the Shopping Day Committee a sum of £1,200 on account.

The year 1902 was, as pointed out in the last report, an exceptional one. In view of His Majesty's Coronation the donations and capital contributions to the Fund which bears his name were exceptionally large, irrespective of the special Coronation Gift, and the Council were accordingly in a position to recommend that the sum of £101,000 should be distributed amongst the London Hospitals and Convalescent Homes.

In the year just closed, in respect of which this report is submitted, the amount received in donations shows a decrease: but the annual subscriptions have increased by £4,000, while the League of Mercy has contributed £2,000 more than in any previous year. During the five years of its existence the League has furnished in all £32,000 to the Fund. Its operations extend over London and the Home Counties, and by lectures, meetings, and a very complete organisation it has succeeded in enlisting the practical interest of a large number of persons of all classes, many of them subscribing small sums, in the beneficent work of the London Hospitals. To all the voluntary workers who have contributed towards this increasing success the Council desire to express their acknowledgments.

In pursuance of the decision arrived at, the Special Committee appointed for the purpose issued a general appeal at the end of September to the Shopkeepers of the Metropolis inviting them to set apart Tuesday, November 3rd, as a Hospital Shopping Day, and to give a percentage of their takings on that day to the Fund for the benefit of the Hospitals. Though the scheme at the outset was promised considerable support and met with much sympathy, as it developed, opposition of an important character became apparent. The Council therefore cannot recommend its continuance during the present year. A substantial sum on account has however been paid in free of all expense, and the thanks of the Council are due to the anonymous donor who bore all the expense of the working of the scheme, to the Newspaper Proprietors, to a number of volunteer workers, and to all who in a greater or less degree so generously supported the Committee's efforts.

His Majesty the King, the Patron, has been pleased to continue that deep interest in the Fund which he has taken from its inception; and the President, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, has given much time to the work of the Fund, and his continuous devotion to its welfare is evidenced by the speech he made on December 14th, which is so authoritative an account of the work of the past year that we venture to quote some extracts from it.

His Royal Highness, in moving the adoption of the Report of the Executive Committee, said:—

“ In reviewing the results of this year's work I have to admit that the hopes which I expressed twelve months ago, that another £10,000 a year would be forthcoming, have not been fulfilled. But the year 1902 was an exceptional one, as a large sum was contributed specially as a Coronation Gift.

“ We have, however, in addition to the sums set aside to be invested and those given in the form of investments, a considerable balance which can be utilised at the discretion of the General Council. Upon this balance we have decided to draw for this year only, in order that the amount for distribution among the Hospitals may not be less than that of last year.

“ We have not come to this decision without duly considering those two opposing principles, one of which deprecates any encroachment upon our reserves, while the other advocates the expenditure of subscriptions with a view of relieving present necessity rather than of placing them to capital account.

“ We are anxious not to go back in the work initiated by the King, and in the fulfilment of which I consider a sacred trust was confided to me. Our aim must be steady progress, and to secure public confidence.

“ It is a matter of regret to find that in the Hospitals where the charges for maintenance were held to be too high, no adequate reduction has yet been made. No doubt this matter will next year receive the close attention of the Distribution Committee.

“ With regard to King's College Hospital, I note with the utmost satisfaction its removal to South London. The importance of establishing in that vast population a large Hospital with a Medical School, is known to all, and I am glad that the decision seems to have met with general approbation.

“ The amount allocated to the amalgamation of Orthopædic Hospitals is large, but I fully concur with the Distribution Committee in their view of the great importance of establishing in London one first-rate Orthopædic Hospital.

" You will, I am sure, join with me in congratulating the League of Mercy on the steady progress made, and the increased aid given by it to the Fund.

" It is a matter of satisfaction to find that the Trustees of the London Parochial Charities continue to entrust us with the administration of the £1,000 which they allot to Convalescent Homes. We are satisfied that in allocating these grants chiefly to Convalescent Homes connected with London Hospitals we are acting in conformity with the views both of the supporters of the Fund and of the Trust."

His Royal Highness alluded in feeling terms to the loss sustained by the Fund through the deaths of Cardinal Vaughan and Lord Rowton, and the retirement of Lord Lister from active participation in the work, an expression of regret in which the Council most sincerely concur.

Every Hospital to which a grant was made was inspected and reported upon, and it is hoped that this work of the Visitors may win, as it deserves, the confidence of the public in the administration of their contributions.

It is a matter for congratulation that the amalgamation of certain Hospitals is being brought about through the instrumentality of the Fund, while proposals have been laid before others where amalgamation is thought to be desirable, and if consideration is given to the fact that many Hospitals are placed in proximity to one another while large and densely populated areas have none, it is to be hoped that in time some more methodical distribution of these institutions may be brought about.

Including the sum of £863. 3s. 2d. received on account of the Coronation Gift, but not included in last year's report, the receipts for the year 1903 amounted to £83,483. 19s. After deliberate consideration the Council decided to recommend that £100,000 should be distributed among the Hospitals and Convalescent Homes. This involved drawing upon reserves to the amount of £18,751. 9s. As the monies thus drawn upon were placed at the entire discretion of the Council, this action was felt to be justified, having regard to present needs and in full reliance upon continued sympathy and increased support from the charitable public.

Statistics show that about 25 per cent. of the patients seeking relief from the London Hospitals reside beyond the Metropolitan area. This, coupled with the service rendered to the Nation and the Empire by the work of the London Hospitals, justifies an appeal to yet wider sources of revenue, if the voluntary system of Hospital provision is to continue.

At the present time these institutions, so far from receiving support from public funds, actually contribute yearly over £20,000 in rates. The payment of this large sum annually is a serious burden, falling mainly on the charitable public, and it is to be regretted that effectual steps have not yet been taken to relieve from this charge institutions which, from their nature materially lessen the cost to the ratepayers of Poor Law Medical Relief.

The working expenses of the Fund during the year amounted to £2,218. 17s., or less than $2\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. on the amount received, which suffices to prove the economical manner in which the Fund is administered.

In conclusion the Council again relies upon the kindly co-operation of the Press in obtaining for the work of the King's Hospital Fund for London yet wider publicity and support.

Report of the Hospitals Distribution Committee.

THE Committee desire to record the great loss they have sustained in the retirement of Lord Lister from his position as their Chairman, the arduous and responsible duties of which he had so well performed ever since the Fund was founded. They desire to express their deep appreciation of the services he has rendered and their regret that his advancing years and the state of his health compelled him reluctantly to retire.

Sir William Church was elected Chairman in his stead.

The Committee have the pleasure to report that the Executive Committee, with the approval of His Royal Highness the President, placed in their hands this year the sum of £99,000 for distribution among the London Hospitals.

The advances of medical science entail great expense on existing Hospitals to bring the condition of their buildings and equipment up to the standard of modern requirements, thus causing a great drain on the funds supplied by the benevolence of the charitable public. At the same time the necessary expenditure on patients tends to increase, so that the needs of the Hospitals are more urgent than ever.

Now that, with the aid of His Majesty's Fund, nearly all the closed beds in the metropolitan institutions have been re-opened, the Committee considered that their efforts should be directed to assisting, as far as their funds permitted, the development of Hospitals in localities where accommodation was insufficient.

With the exception of the grant to the Poplar Hospital, which is given to help in opening ten more beds for the use of the sick poor, no further sums have been allocated under this heading.

The numbers of beds re-opened in the different years are as follows :—

1897	185
1898	57
1899	45
1900	0
1901	34
1902	112
1903	10
Total beds re-opened				...	443

These have been re-opened as free beds.

The Committee are of opinion that one first-rate Orthopædic Hospital, with its country branch, will tend more to the general benefit of this class of patient than a number of institutions in London in rivalry with one another. They regret that the City Orthopædic has not at present seen its way to join in any scheme for amalgamation. The Committee consider that, although the sum set aside for the amalgamation scheme, as stated below, is large, it will be money well spent.

The Committee further recommend that, in accordance with the resolution passed by the General Council of the Fund last year, other sums should from time to time be set aside with a view to the possible amalgamation of other Hospitals.

A large grant has also been recommended to King's College Hospital, the removal of which to the South of London they view with the greatest satisfaction, and feel assured that the supporters of the Fund will appreciate the importance of encouraging the removal of this Hospital.

Subscribers to the Fund will note the various conditions on which grants are made. In addition to remarks published with regard to certain Hospitals, it should be mentioned that private letters are in many instances written to individual Hospitals containing various suggestions.

The Visitors' Reports on the various Hospitals have been of the greatest advantage to the Committee, who wish to express their appreciation of the services thus rendered.

The details of the awards to the various Hospitals are appended.

For the Committee,

W. S. CHURCH,

Chairman.

REPORT OF THE CONVALESCENT HOMES COMMITTEE.

Owing to the continued liberality of the grant made by the Trustees of the London Parochial Charities the Committee have again £1,000 to distribute.

The Committee have again followed the course adopted in previous years of making out of the limited sum at their disposal fairly substantial grants to a comparatively small number of institutions, and to a great extent they have repeated grants to those before approved of, in preference to varying the distribution.

The following awards were recommended :—

Alexandra Hospital, Convalescent Home at Painswick	£ 50
Charing Cross Hospital, Convalescent Home at Limpsfield, Surrey	50
East London Hospital for Children, Convalescent Home at Bognor	100
